From the East

Greetings Brother,

Happy spring everyone. I'm looking forward to some events we have coming up. I'm working with our secretary Shawn to plan a car show we are putting together for the end of the month. Look out for more information on that in the next week or so. And a little further in the horizon next month, in April, we have our 75th anniversary.

At the anniversary we are going to be dedicating our garden to brother Lou Ort. Also, in the spirit of our anniversary, the new challenge coins we are selling as a fundraiser are available. Many of the brothers that have already got them love them, so make sure you get yourself one before they sell out. They're being sold for $20 a piece. We're going to have some in the Tyler's desk as well as I will have them when I'm out and about through the district.

I'd also like to say thank you to R.W. Judd for his assistance in volunteering to make the side we contributed to the district picnic last month. We had a great time of fellowship shared by brothers from around the district, and I can't wait for the next one. I hope to see all of our brothers there to show the district just how strong our lodge is.

At the moment, Liberty lodge is the temporary home to the traveling gavel. Lets get the people together to return the gavel to its proper home at Venice Lodge. We brought home the column with 7 brothers in attendance at the MMA in February. I want to thank everyone that came out and look forward to seeing even more of you at the March MMA at Sarasota lodge on the 26th. Let's continue to show our strong representation throughout the district!

I have moved the officer meeting this month to be on the 2nd Monday due to last month's cancelation. We must get as much finalized for the anniversary at that meeting as possible so if you have any input or suggestions please come out and support our lodge.

Fraternally,
Greg Ellis
Worshipful Master

Greetings Brothers!

Finally getting to some warmer weather and with that comes spring! We've had some great things going on with more on the horizon.

Huge thank you to those who could make it out to VHS to assist in volunteering with their Varsity Baseball team. This is 2 years in a row we've been able to help out and that's great exposure for our lodge and helps our community.

That said, we are also actively looking at adopting a local park for cleanup which is great for our community and our lodge.

I love seeing the representation of Masonry more and more in the public. Society, especially young men are looking for something bigger than themselves right now to be a part of. Let us be the beacon and Light that draws them closer.

Blessings brothers!

Fraternally,
Br. Chris Wilson

From the South

Greetings Brethren!

I hope everyone had a great month and enjoyed some of the nice weather we've had! Last Friday we volunteered at Venice high school helping out in the concession stand and what a great turnout we had! I would like to give a special thanks to brother's Dan Luna, Chris Galeone and Derek Johnson for coming out and lending their hand and helping us support our community!

Our charity of the month will be the Habitat for Humanity of South Sarasota. Their goal is to build and provide affordable housing for families in need.

The dinner for our first stated meeting on 3/2 will be Korean beef with rice and salad with ginger dressing & dessert.

Our family dinner on 3/16 will be beef stroganoff with salad & dessert.

I hope you all have a blessed and prosperous month ahead!

Fraternally,
Br. Devin Singer
Junior Warden

Brethren & Ladies: It is very important that everyone planning on attending our family dinners make reservations so we can ensure sufficient meals will be available for all who attend.

Please email your RSVP to me at:

Good day Brothers!

For the new year, I have changed the calendar format somewhat. To closer resemble the 23rd Masonic District Calendar I have color coded entries for different categories of events and appendant bodies. Below is a list of what colors mean what. I'll leave this slide here in front of the calendar for everyone for a few months until we all get used to the changes.

Blue: These are the locations of events held at Blue Lodges such as @ Venice Lodge 301. The same color also corresponds to appendant bodies that meet at a Lodge, such as Trinity Commandry meeting at Venice Lodge, appendant bodies' colors are noted below or at a restaurant or other meeting place.

Purple: These are appendant bodies having events or meetings such as the Queen of Hearts Drawing or the previously mentioned Trinity Commandry.

Red: These entries are events and meetings that concern the entire district such as the monthly Master Mason Association (MMA) Meeting or Open Books.

Green: This is for youth organizations such as C. Allen Pattison DeMolay and Rainbow Girls No. 38. You will notice that this also follows the same format as appendant bodies meeting at a lodge as their location is also in blue.

Orange: This notes the specific events, usually at Lodges, such as a Stated Meeting. This will also include, but not limited to, installation of officers, degrees and degree practices or open houses.

Entries on the calendar are in order by time, earliest events at the top. Within that context, events are in the following order:

‡ Blue Lodge Events

‡ Appendant Bodies Events

‡ District Events

‡ Youth Events

If you do not see a Lodge event on a date but do see youth event, then there is no Lodge event

The format of the district has calendar has also changed, all events are separated into their own separate calendars so it might take some time to get used to the new look. If you see an issue with any events, please let me know so it can be corrected.

CHAPLAIN

As an Officer of the Lodge, and while acting in that capacity, the correct place for the Chaplain to be seated during a Communication is to the left and in front of the Worshipful Master. The prayers at the opening and closing of the Lodge may be offered by the Chaplain while kneeling at the Altar or while standing at his place, at the option of the Worshipful Master. The Scriptures assigned to the Circumambulations should be recited by the Chaplain standing in his place in the Lodge and should not be read. The Chaplain has otherwise so little to render that the memorizations of these portions should not prove burdensome to him. Only the adopted ritual prayers as found in the Official Florida Monitor shall be used in opening, closing, and during Degree conferrals, except that the Chaplain may add some words of his own at the end of the opening and/or closing prayer in non-sectarian language and in good taste.

CORRESPONDENCE (MASONIC)

When addressing mail to a Brother Mason, do not put his title as such on the envelope. It should be addressed as:

Hon. John Doe

In the salutation of the letter the title should appear as:

R.∴ W.∴ John Doe

71 West 23rd Street

New York City, NY

Dear Brother Doe,

DISCUSSION IN LODGE

All sectarian discussion, all argument or statement pro or con as to the merits of civil politics, or any given religion or theological creed, of racial questions, or private business, or of any other non-Masonic subject by which Masons might be divided into classes, feuds, schisms, or opposed schools, is at all times forbidden. It is strictly forbidden to discuss a petitioner or for a Mason to reveal how he has voted or in any way to seek to persuade members to vote one way or another on a petitioner.

All uses of personalities, all expressions of bitterness or ill will, acrimoniousness, and all or any slurs upon the Lodge or its Officers, Grand Lodge or its Officers, and the Fraternity itself, and all flippant, unseemly, or discourteous remarks addressed to the Lodge or to its Officers are condemned alike by the principles of common courtesy and etiquette and by the disciplinary laws of the Craft.

This is not to say that a Master Mason, particularly one who has acted as a Representative in Grand Lodge, should not inform the Craft fully and completely as to what has taken place in Grand Lodge. Such a report can be rendered truthfully and with dignity and without the use of personalities, and this rule, of course, should always be observed.

A Brother wishing to participate in a discussion in open Lodge should always rise and address the Worshipful Master. He should speak on the subject at issue in the fewest possible words, not using his privilege of the floor as an opportunity to deliver a speech merely for its own sake. (See also "Speeches")

DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTER The District Deputy Grand Master is the personal representative of the Grand Master and when visiting a Lodge, whether it be formally or informally, he should be accorded all respect. He should never be addressed by his first name during any part of Lodge ceremonies. Such conduct demeans his office.

The District Deputy Grand Master should be received in accordance with provisions adopted at the 180th Grand Lodge in 2010 (Revised-Reception of District Deputy Grand Master). (See Grand Lodge Officers in this booklet) A District Deputy Grand Master is required by our Constitutional Law to officially visit every Lodge in his District at least once during his term. He comes there to perform certain specific duties required by Grand Lodge and to give the Brethren the message of the Grand Master. This message contains matters of importance concerning which the Grand Master, in his wisdom, deems it necessary to inform the Craft. The remarks of the Deputy then are of supreme importance. It is his evening. No programs or speeches other than his should be allowed. What he has to say should stand out nothing must detract from it.

The Constitution also requires that the District Deputy inspect the records and accounts of the Lodges and see that the same are in proper order (Article VI, Section 11). There have been instances where Lodges have gotten into difficulties because of irregularities which such an inspection would have disclosed, but were not discovered until too late, because this Constitutional requirement had not been complied with. This being a duty imposed upon the District Deputy, by our Constitution, the Master should formally tender the Lodge records to the District Deputy, before such an official visitation, and preferably at a time convenient to the District Deputy to examine the same, so that a conscientious District Deputy will not be put to the embarrassment of asking for the records.

When making an official visit to a Lodge in his District, the District Deputy shall be formally received with Grand Honors. (See "Grand Honors" for those entitled to receive the same.) On such occasions, all guests who are not entitled to Grand Honors, but whom it is desired to honor by a special introduction at the Altar, should be received first. Thereafter, the District Deputy may prefer to be received alone, ahead of the others entitled to Grand Honors, in order that he may himself preside at the reception and the rendering of Grand Honors to such other guests, or he may desire to enter with such other distinguished guests, in which case, it being his official visitation, where in the absence of the Grand Master, he is directly exercising his function as the personal representative of the Grand Master, he will head the procession and be introduced first.

Following the introduction, welcoming and rendition of Grand Honors at the Altar, the District Deputy is first escorted to the East, then the other distinguished guests are escorted to seats in the East. If there be more of them than can be seated in the East, then seats should be reserved for them as close to the East as possible. The District Deputy may, if he desires, retain the gavel and preside over such meeting, in which case he will be covered and the Worshipful Master will uncover, but the District Deputy will not wear his hat when entering the Lodge Room, as our law provides that a Worshipful Master is required to uncover only for the Grand Master in person. The District Deputy will be covered when presiding, for the same reason that anyone presiding in the East, whether by right or at the request, or with the consent of the Worshipful Master is covered, the Worshipful Master remaining uncovered while such a person presides. It is the usual practice for the District Deputy to return the gavel to the Worshipful Master of the Lodge, when his status is that of principal guest of honor, but, as before stated, he may preside if he so desires.

At such official visitations of a District Deputy, the Worshipful Master should consult with the District Deputy in advance, as to arrangements, and his wishes should be scrupulously followed. If there are other speakers, the District Deputy will, as the most honored guest, speak last, unless the Grand Master should be present. When a Grand Master makes his official visitation to a District, the District Deputy is in full charge of and is responsible for the proper handling of all the details incident to such a meeting. (See “Grand Masters Visitation”) (See also “Speeches”)

DRESS

Shall a Lodge require of its Officers that they wear formal dress? The wisdom of so doing depends entirely upon circumstances and is a point which it is the prerogative of each constituent Lodge to decide, though much may be said in favor of formal dress “cutaway coat,” tuxedo, or full evening dress, since it is a mark of respect to the Fraternity.

In any event, one thing is certain: if any of the Officers are required to wear formal attire all the Officers should wear it without exception; and if he and his colleagues wear it, the Worshipful Master should use a hat to correspond not a soft hat, straw hat, or a cap. The members will dress according to private taste and it is proper that they enter the Lodge Room with apron properly arranged beforehand, and any other regalia, jewels, etc., in due order.

The custom prevails in some Lodges of having the Worshipful Master wear one type of dress (clothing) while the other Officers wear different styles of dress. The harmony of good taste will be better served if all dress alike.

There is a philosophy in dress as in so many other things, and the dress proper to Masonic occasion is no exception. Its principle is good taste; its practice is to wear such attire as shows respect to the Brotherhood and expresses the dignity of Masonry.

The Florida DMW Masonic Plate is more than just a way to show off our fraternity, each registered plate helps with the Masonic Home Endowment Fund. By purchasing a Masonic Plate for your vehicle, you will help to keep the Masonic Home open and providing quality care for our Brothers who need the much needed help. When it is time for you to register your tag for the year, consider paying the little bit extra and get the Masonic Plate. As of this month, there are 7,814 Masonic Plates in Florida, ranked 78th in the state. We can do so much better than that Brothers. There are 33,000 of us after all and we are working hard to make that number grow! Obtaining a plate is eazy, click this link and you will be taken to the Florida DMW where you can fill out your application. All the instructions you need are on that form including submission, fees etc. Let's show the Sunshine State where Light truly comes from!
